

UNIVERSITY of HOUSTON
STEM CENTER

June 5th-9th

The University of Houston STEM Center in partnership with
The Young Inventors' Association of America
Presents the

UH Young Inventors' Summer Camp

*For students entering grades 6-9
in Fall 2017*

Program Information

Dates: June 5-9, 2017
Location: University of Houston,
Stephen Farish Hall
Time: 10:00AM—3:00PM
Cost: $350.00***

*Includes lunches, activities, T-Shirt, building materials and faculty instruction.

Extended Day Program

AM: 8:00AM—10:00AM ($50.00)
PM: 3:00PM—5:00PM ($50.00)

Apply* using the link below:

UH Young Inventors' Summer Camp

Notification of acceptance and payment instructions will be sent to accepted applicants within 48 hours of the initial submission.

Applications will be accepted until May 5, 2017

At the UH Young Inventors' Summer Camp students will...

- Brainstorm ideas & create an Invention Journal
- Work on their prototypes with a STEM instructor
- Have access to workshop space, tools, technology and a 3D printer
- Explore the campus and STEM resources available at the University of Houston
- Be entered to compete in the Summer Young Inventors' Showcase judged by the Young Inventors' Association of America

UH STEM Center
Heather Domjan, Ed.D.
Interim Executive Director
713-743-4923
www.uh.edu/stem/